

Ways to Give

There are many ways you can choose to leave your legacy:

- A bequest through your will
- A charitable gift annuity
- A gift of life insurance
- A gift of securities
- A gift of RRSP/RRIF
- An endowment fund

Please ask for our Planned Giving Information Sheet on ways of giving and how to plan for them with your lawyer or financial advisor.

Who We Are

Since 1977, we have had a clear vision: people with disabilities having genuine independence, living with dignity, and contributing and sharing in our communities.

Our vision is driven by our Board of Directors, all of whom are people living with disabilities, and supported by our staff, most of whom have a disability.

For more information about our vision, programs and services, please visit us on our website at www.disabilityalliancebc.org.

Being there for people close to us is one of life's joys. And some of us are fortunate to have the financial security to care for loved ones beyond our lifetime.

Leaving a gift to a cause you believe in is another way to create your legacy.

Your bequest to Disability Alliance BC (DABC) will promote and protect the dignity and independence of people living with a disability.

Your gift will help us to be here in the future for those who need us.

"I can't thank you enough. If it were not for you and the caring you have for others, my life would be more difficult today." a DABC client

You've always been there for others. It's part of who you are.
You can continue to give beyond your lifetime.

Share Our Vision

The people we serve and support are all ages and from all walks of life:

- Families needing income supports and health services to live with dignity
- People with disabilities who are homeless
- Workers injured on the job
- People who need support to live safely and independently at home
- People who need assistive devices or assistance animals
- People with invisible disabilities and chronic illnesses
- Students with learning disabilities
- People with disabilities who choose to leave institutions and live in their communities

What We Do

Here are some of the ways we fulfill our vision:

- We help thousands of people with disabilities each year, through our one-to-one advocacy services
- We prepare and distribute over 50 self-help publications (over 60,000 copies) on disability rights, accessing government programs, and more
- We created the first emergency preparedness network in BC for people with disabilities and seniors
- We improve people with disabilities' financial security through assistance with the Registered Disability Savings Plan and free income tax filing

Choose How You Want Your Gift to be Used

You can direct your gift to a specific program or you can ask us to use it where it's needed most.
